

F2

Margaret's Buildings

Nestled between The Circus and The Royal Crescent. Explore the boutique and individual shops.

E3

Bartlett Street

Among the many independent shops, this is home to Bath's largest antiques centre with 12 stands.

Bath's attractions and hidden shopping treasures

independent, creative and stylish

Due to its compact nature this unique city is ideal for exploring on foot. Discover the many fascinating areas and take time to explore the charm and hidden gems to be found off the key routes on this map.

Supported by  Business Improvement District bathbid.co.uk

D4

Pulteney Bridge & Argyle Street

One of the world's most beautiful bridges with shops.

E4

Walcot Street

Known as the Artisan Quarter where you'll discover a treasure trove of independent craft, curio shops and workshops.

E3

George Street

Nicely balanced by a handful of quirky independent shops and plenty of cool local bars and late night spots.

E3

Broad Street

Home furnishings, fashion and independent shops - there's something for everyone.

E3

Milsom Street & Milsom Place

A great place for top fashion designers, department stores and home interiors, where you'll also find Milsom Place.

D3

Green Street

Over 20 individual shops and Bath's main Post Office.

C2

Green Park Station Market

A thriving local market, restaurants and entertainment.

C3

Sawclose & Kingsmead Square

An attractive mix of retail, restaurants and cafés to enjoy al fresco.

C3

Westgate Street & Cheap Street

Showcasing an array of high street favourites, independent shops and plenty of places to eat and drink.

C4

Union Street & Stall Street

Making up the central streets of Bath and providing a lively route through the length of the city.

D3

C4

Abbey Green

A quiet cobbled square which has been used for many films and plays. The sycamore tree was planted in 1793.

B4

SouthGate Bath

Find your favourite brand, the latest fashion and tech, restaurants and more.

A5

Widcombe Parade

Just over the River Avon you'll discover a thriving community with excellent facilities and services.

